Annual Awards, 2005

The Editor's Award, established in 2005 to be awarded beginning in 2006, recognizes contributors of multiple articles to Essays in Economic and Business History whose work over several years gives scholarly definition to the journal.

The Charles J. Kennedy Award, established in honor of the founder of the Economic and Business Historical Society, is given annually to the author or authors of the best article published in that year's issue of Essays in Economic and Business History. The 2005 award was presented in High Point, North Carolina, to Harvey Gresham Hudspeth of Mississippi Valley State University for "One Percent Inspiration and 99 Percent Tracing Paper': The Pan-Electric Scandal and the Making of a Circuit Court Judge, April–November 1886."

The James Soltow Award, established in honor of the founder and first editor of Essays in Economic and Business History, is given for the best article in that year's issue of Essays by an author or authors who have not previously published in Essays. The 2005 award was presented in High Point, North Carolina, to Scott Dalrymple of Hartwick College for "A Glass Half Full: Capitalist Ethics in the Novels of Will Payne."
