2010 Style Guidelines for Writing and Submitting Papers

- Papers (25 page maximum) must be in a recent version of Microsoft Word, and must be sent via email attachment to the Editor at eebh.journal@bucknell.edu.
- Use 12 pt. Times New Roman font throughout.
- Double space the paper and endnotes. Margins should be 1" on all sides.
- Number all pages in the bottom center.
- Notes should conform to the Chicago Manual of Style.

The First Page

- The front page should include the full title followed by the author's or authors' full name(s) and affiliation(s). We allow 2 lines for affiliation (for example, department and college).
- Put the full name, email, telephone number, fax number, and mailing address of the paper's contact who will speak with the Essays' editors.

The Second and Third Pages

- On the second page give the title and an abstract of about 100 words.
- On the third page, start the text of the paper.

Submitting your paper

Send one electronic version to the editor at eebh.journal@bucknell.edu by July 9, 2010. Please adhere to the guidelines to increase your chances of having the paper accepted.
