
Essays in Economic & Business History

Volume XXXVIII, 2020

“Women’s Access to Credit Increases Women in Bankruptcy: Evidence from Maryland Since 1940” Mary Eschelbach Hansen and Michelle Mckinnon Miller

“Credit Union Capital, Insolvency, and Mergers Before and After Share Insurance” Stephanie O. Crofton, Luis G. Dopico and James A. Wilcox

“Production, Prices, and Technology: A Historical Analysis of the United States Coal Industry” Mike Matheis

“Tracing the Historic Roots of Generalized Trust” Benjamin Kalischer Wellander and Tino Sanandaji

“Privately Preventing Malaria In The United States, 1900-1925” Byron Carson

“The First Greek Modernizer: Just How Much of a Modernizer Was He? The Charilaos Trikoupis Case” Ioannis Papanagiotou

“How Does Globalization Affect the Welfare State? Openness to Trade and Social Spending Patterns in 21 Countries, 1920-2000” Henric Häggqvist

“Accepting the Inevitable: The Liberalization of the African Alcohol Industry in Salisbury, Rhodesia, 1960s to the Early 1980s” Nathaniel Chimhete and Eric Makombe

“‘The Grand Bargain’: Detroit’s Financial Fall to Bankruptcy and Rise to New Possibilities” John Naglick, Martin Lavelle and John A. Moore

“Detroit: A Microcosm of Municipal Finance, Bankruptcy, and Recovery” John A. Dove

<http://ebhsoc.org/>